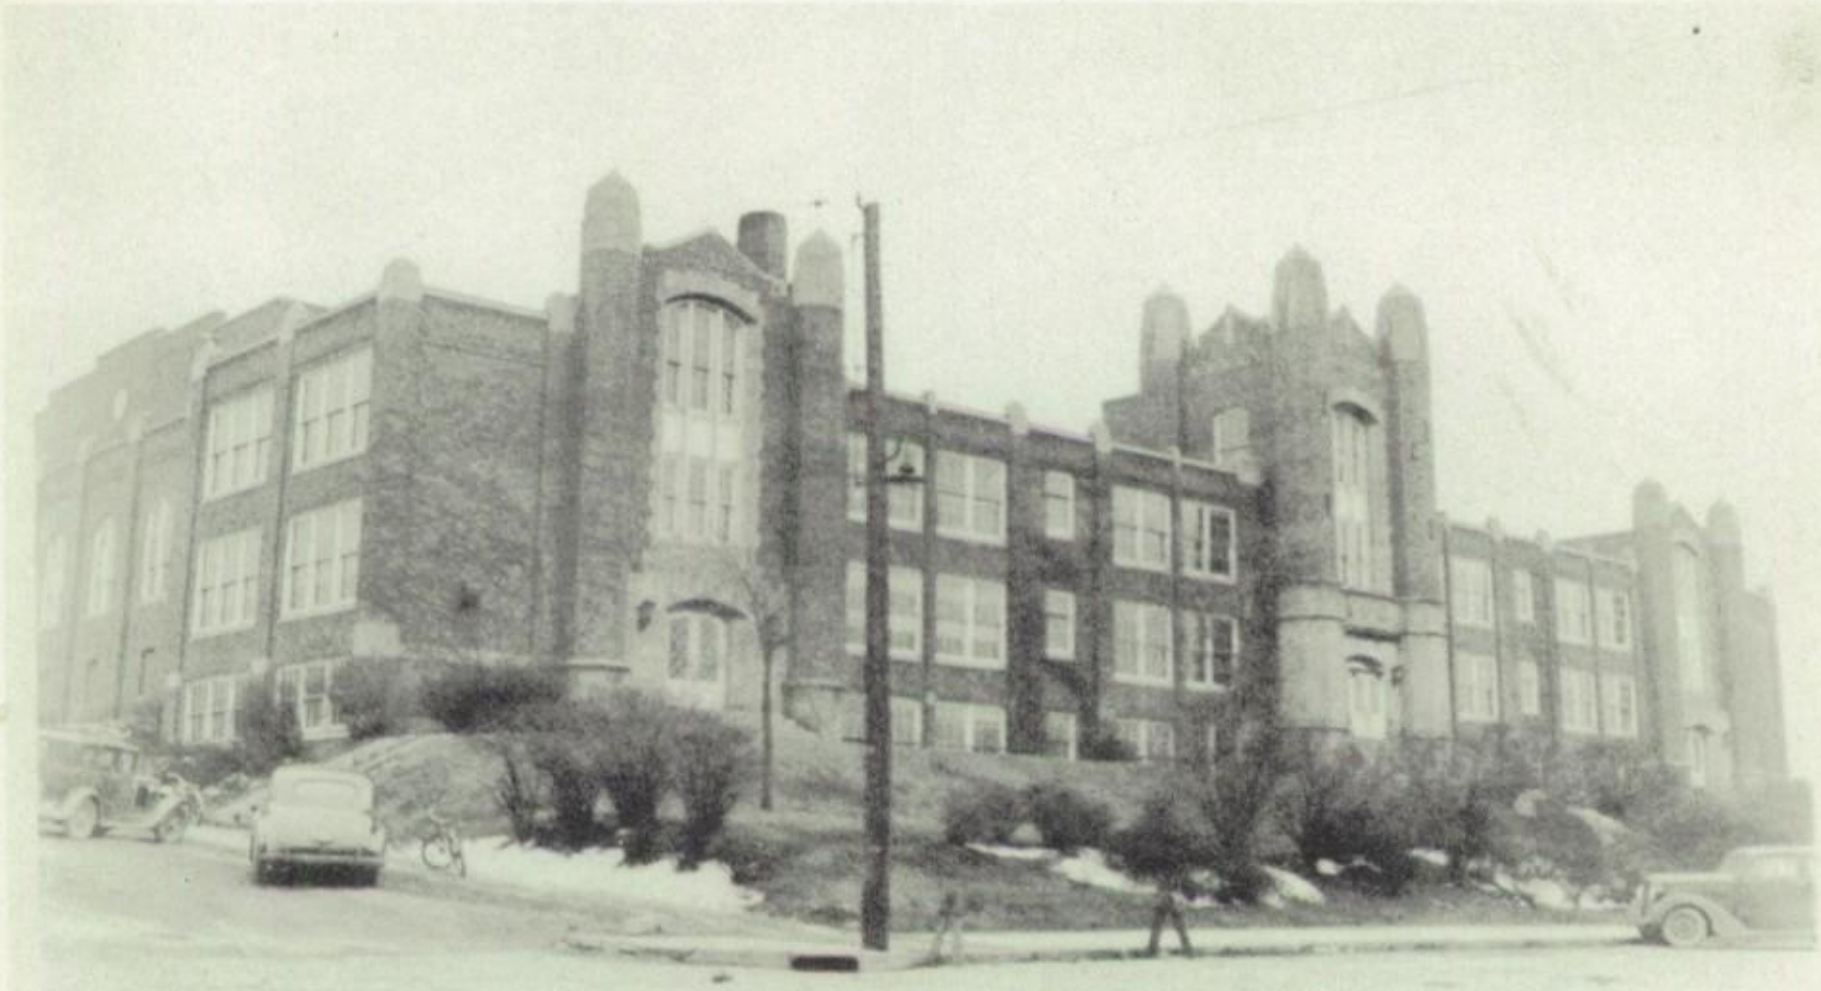
THE SIGNAL



In the Tuscarawas Valley
At the foot of Old Point Breeze
Stands our beloved Hi-School
with its many memories
Memories that will remind us
As the many years roll by
To the happy days together
At dear Old Dennison Hi

Chorus

Alma Mater, we love thee
For the victories won
On Field and in Classroom
in deed and in song,
We revere thee and cheer thee
With praises, loud and long.

When our Hi-School days have ended
And we've wandered from thy halls
Into life's more open conflict
Where stern duty ever calls
With sweet memories of school days,
We will always harken back,
To the days when we defended
The Orange and the Black

Message From a Senior

Our time is drawing short
And now we wish to say
That with our study came our sport
And with our work, our play

To you, teachers, one and all,
We extend our deepest thanks
For the times in study hall
You've endured our pranks.

Now our lessons we have learned,
And, if you'll but wait, you'll see,
We'll do the things for which you've yearned;
We'll use the education that has been free.

To you, students, take this for what it's worth;
Don't laugh all the time or shed all tears
Don't strain your buttons or bust your girth,
Just study a bit in your high school years.

SENIOR HISTORY

Just four years ago, the present senior class first entered into Dennison High School. Upon our first entrance to Dennison High, we, the freshmen were a bit confused, but we were not ones to stay that way. As soon as we became familiar with our surroundings, we began to take our part in the activities of the school. At the end of our first year, we had won recognition as a class of willing and cooperative workers. Students from our class had entered in all phases of the activities of the school. The most widely known freshman was probably Bill "Mutt" Barth, the champion half-miler in the district. Bill went to Columbus where he placed seven th in the state. Other outstanding freshmen were, Joanne Fulton a soloist in the high school chorus, and Margie Brownfield and Helen "Punky" Richard who were majorettes in the high school band.

The next year we got off to a good start by electing as our new officers, Willard Hill, President; Don Sudduth, Vice-President; and Helen Richard, Secretary-Treasurer. The class was well represented on the football team with one member, Don Sudduth, earning his award along with many others who participated but failed to get enough quarters for their letters. In basketball, the class was represented too with Willy Hill, Mutt Barth, and Dick Rizor earning their "D's". Don't forget the girls for they were not ones to shirk their duties, not with such activities as girls' chrous, G. A. A., the band, and, one cheerleader, Myrnie Bache.

Our junior year was a very busy one with clubs, athletics, and dramatics. The class officers this year were Don Sudduth, President Mary Jane Whitaker, Vice-President, succeeded later in the year by Margie Brownfield; Nancy Treherne, Secretary; and Marilyn Bache, Treasurer. The junior play was entitled "THE GAY GOOSE" and was quite well received. The class then began to prepare for the Junior-Senior Prom; head of the prom committee was Bill King, who did a magnificent job; there is little doubt but that the seniors of that year will remember that job. The crowning joy of the whole year to most of the juniors was that dance and the satisfaction gained then may be surpassed only by graduation.

Our senior class officers are Willard Hill, President; Joanne Fulton V.Pres.;Myrnie Bache,Treas.;Marge Brownfield, Sec. and Billy King, Social Chairman. The senior boys did pretty well in athletics this year with seven of the class on one or the other of the first two teams, the offensive or defensive platoons. One of the seniors, Dick Rizor, set a new individual scoring record for Dennison teams by scoring 81 points in a single season. The captain, Frank Barker, won an award for blocking the most kicks in a single season. The seniors also had a toe specialist, that is the one who attempts a point after the touchdown, Willy Hill. The first class activity this year was a hayride; this hayride was very successful;in fact, we sold more tickets than we had room for riders. Then came the senior play; our play this year was entitled "TROUBLE SHOOTER" a three act farce comedy. Work on the yearbook soon followed, and the class was very busy at this task. The class changed sponsors at the beginning of the second semester; Mr. Lower took the place of Mr. Allen. Now we must begin to prepare for Class Day, the class trip, picnic, graduation exercises, Baccalaureate and Commencement.

SENIOR PLAY

- TROUBLE SHOOTER -

The Senior class presented the three act farce comedy, Trouble Shooter, November 17th with the following cast:
Dan Ferris, hard-working city attorney - Bill King
Nellie Ferris, pleasant fluttery wife - Virginia Richard
Beverly Ferris, their attractive and outspoken daughter - Jo Fulton
J. S. Wilson, Senior, a writer - Don Sudduth
Essie Wilson, his timidly apologetic wife - Julianne Gotshall
Junior Wilson, their son, who is very sure of himself - Bob Wright
Mr. Kobitski, an escaped lunatic - Don Sudduth
Gus, the Policeman - Willard Hill
Two Women, orderlies from the asylum - Norma Millhorn - Kathryn Moore
Director, Mrs. Marjorie Manning

Nellie Ferris started all of the confusion by renting J. S. Wilson the upstairs of her house without telling Dan. Beverly heard an announcement on the radio about an escaped inmate who thinks he is waiting for his family and may try to rent a room at some private home. Mr. Wilson is expecting his wife and son; therefore, Bev and her father thinks that J. S. is the inmate. They trap him with a sheet and cart him off to jail. J. S.'s wife and son arrive when he's being taken away and watch him being taken not knowing it is he. When J. S. finally convinces the police he is a writer, they release him. In a fit of anger, J. S. ties Dan to the chair and turns a fish bowl, containing water and fish, over his head. When everyone finally makes up, the real inmate arrives. It is so much of a shock that the whole cast swoons. Senior members who assisted in this production were:

Publicity Chairman - Lee Custer
Ticket Chairman - Frank Barker
Stage Manager - Don McCue
Prompter - Peggy Gribble

SENIOR CLASS OF '52

We're on the last rung of the ladder,
That we are climbing high
Next year will be our last one
Then we will say good-bye.

Freshmen-initiation, everything new;
Then Sophomores - dances and things to do;
Now Juniors - plays and proms and rings.
Next Seniors- pictures and everything.

We'll be the class of '52,
We wonder then just what we'll do;
We'll miss the old routine but then,
We'll come back again and again.

The three class projects of the juniors this year have been the Christmas Ball (the first orchestra dance of the year), the highly successful play, "Inner Willy," and the traditional Junior Prom. Money-making projects include the sale of programs and popcorn at the football games, stationery and fudge. Individual class members have merited honor and praise for achievement on the basketball court (King, Hilliker, Polen, Dudgeon, Allensworth); on the gridiron (Polen, King, Hilliker, Fisher, Riggs, Craft, Arnold, Long, Allensworth); on scholastic work (Polen, Stocker, Beckley); in deed (Rest, McKnight, Herron, Maitland, Beckley); in special service to the school (Shurtz, Fox, Risley, Beckley, Polen). An excellent class of 1952 is the prediction.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Junior Class presented the three-act farce comedy, Inner Willy, a Row-Peterson royalty play, March 30, Friday evening, in the high school auditorium.

The cast for Inner Willy was as follows:

Willy, a 16 year old, well-behaved and likeable	Rich King
Aunt Hester	Shirley Shurtz
Aunt Louise — Willy's maiden aunts	Lois Beckley
Aunt Olga	Carol Herron
Inner Willy, Willy's "inner self"	Bob Wright
Stanley Clark, 16, inclined to be a bit "tough"	Jack Peters
Mike, 16, bashful, but a regular guy	Judson Fisher
Marybelle, 16, the completely unexciting girl next door	Pat Risley
Trudy Marshall — lively 16 year old twins	Joyce McKnight
Janet Marshall	Patty Maitland
Carol Martin, 16, the girl whom Willie secretly admires	Melva Finch
Director	Mr. William Jirles

A delightful and "different" type of play, Inner Willy is a light comedy of Willie who has been the victim of too much mothering by his devoted maiden aunts. Much in need of a stronger moral backbone, Willie finds his inner self, "the chap in the long underwear", just the fellow he needs to bolster his courage. This "inner Willy" is not visible to anyone except Willie, (and the audience), a situation which results in side-splitting complications for Willie as he goes through the throes and woes of choosing a "girl" for the dance. The maiden aunts, though bewildered by the change in their dear Willie, were forced to accept his growth through tears and pangs of anxiety. Though Inner Willy weaves a story out of a mere wisp of an idea, the comedy was light, refreshing and highly entertaining.

Proceeds from the Junior Play were ear-marked for the annual Junior-Senior Prom.

SOPHOMORE

I'll always remember my Sophomore Class,
The memories of it will forever last,
I'll never forget the good old school rule,
The rememberance of days when we went to school.

We remember when we were "Freshies,"
We thought we were really tough,
But now, since we are Sophomores,
We know we then put on a bluff.

We walk those familiar halls each day,
With the memory of graduation not too far away,
And then some days when we look ahead,
The thought of leaving school we dread.

Our Sophomore Class was a cheerful one,
An important year for everyone,
And when we graduate at last,
Our Sophomore days will be part of our treasured past.

Freshman Class Poem

I thought it was so nice to be a freshman,
But now I'm not so sure;
The trials we had to go through
Were very hard to endure.

To the sophomores we're just babies
And can't take care of ourselves;
And some day, just maybe,
We'll be sophomores with their help.

The juniors with their haughty glance,
Go rushing through the hall;
A freshman just hasn't a chance
With an upper classman, at all.

The seniors call us "Greenhorn,"
And laugh and giggle and make a fuss;
I guess they've forgotten that September morn,
When they were just freshmen, like us.

First Row : Jay Peterson, Thelma Haas, Barbara Yonley, Bob Roahrig
Second Row: Jean Reed, Jim Campisi, Anna Mae Vermillion, Dick Huston
Third Row : Larry Shilling, Mary E. Case, Jack Baer, Harold Hughey

For the Freshmen, a school history has just begun. To them, have fallen many of the more unrewarding tasks within the school's organization. However, after one high school year, this class shows much promise of becoming one of the best classes of our school. Nancy Arnold's name has appeared on the school Honor Roll for each six weeks' marking period. The names of O'Hara, Moody, Bloom, Campisi appear on the sports pages. Violet Soulsby is a class officer in the school's G. A.A, and Arlene Stier is one of the majorettes. The school will hear more about this class of 1954 next year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

First Row : Alonzo Parrish, Carrie Hunter, Sue Stocker, Edith Brower and Dick Huston
Second Row: Mr. Manning, Joyce Bente, Sally McCluskey, Edwin Wagstaff Dick Soulsby, Bill King, and Larry Schilling

The Student Council at D. H. S., a member of the National Association of Student Councils, has assisted in many projects during this school year under the guidance and direction of Principal Fred Manning . With the capable assistance of other students, the Student Council entered a high school float in the annual Halloween Parade. This was part of the Student Council's campaign to effect the passage of the 3-mill school levy in the November election. The General Chairman in charge of this special cooperative project was Bill King, president of the Council. The members of the Council conducted a school clean-up campaign, inaugurated the noon movie program, and assisted in the Community Chest, tuberculosis and March of Dimes collection within the school. Their most recent work has been one of assisting the faculty in a special curriculum study and evaluation. More active than it has been in many years, the Student Council has made an earnest and sincere effort to seek and accomplish improvements that will benefit the students of D. H. S.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

FIRST ROW : Julianne Gotshall, Secretary ; Rena Stocker, Roberta Roberts, President; Lois Beckley, Mr. Kettlewell

SECOND ROW : Don Sudduth, Willard Hill, and Dick Polen

One of the highest honors a high school student may receive is the invitation to accept membership into the National Honor Society. A branch of this nationally known and recognized honor organization was established at Dennison High in 1942.

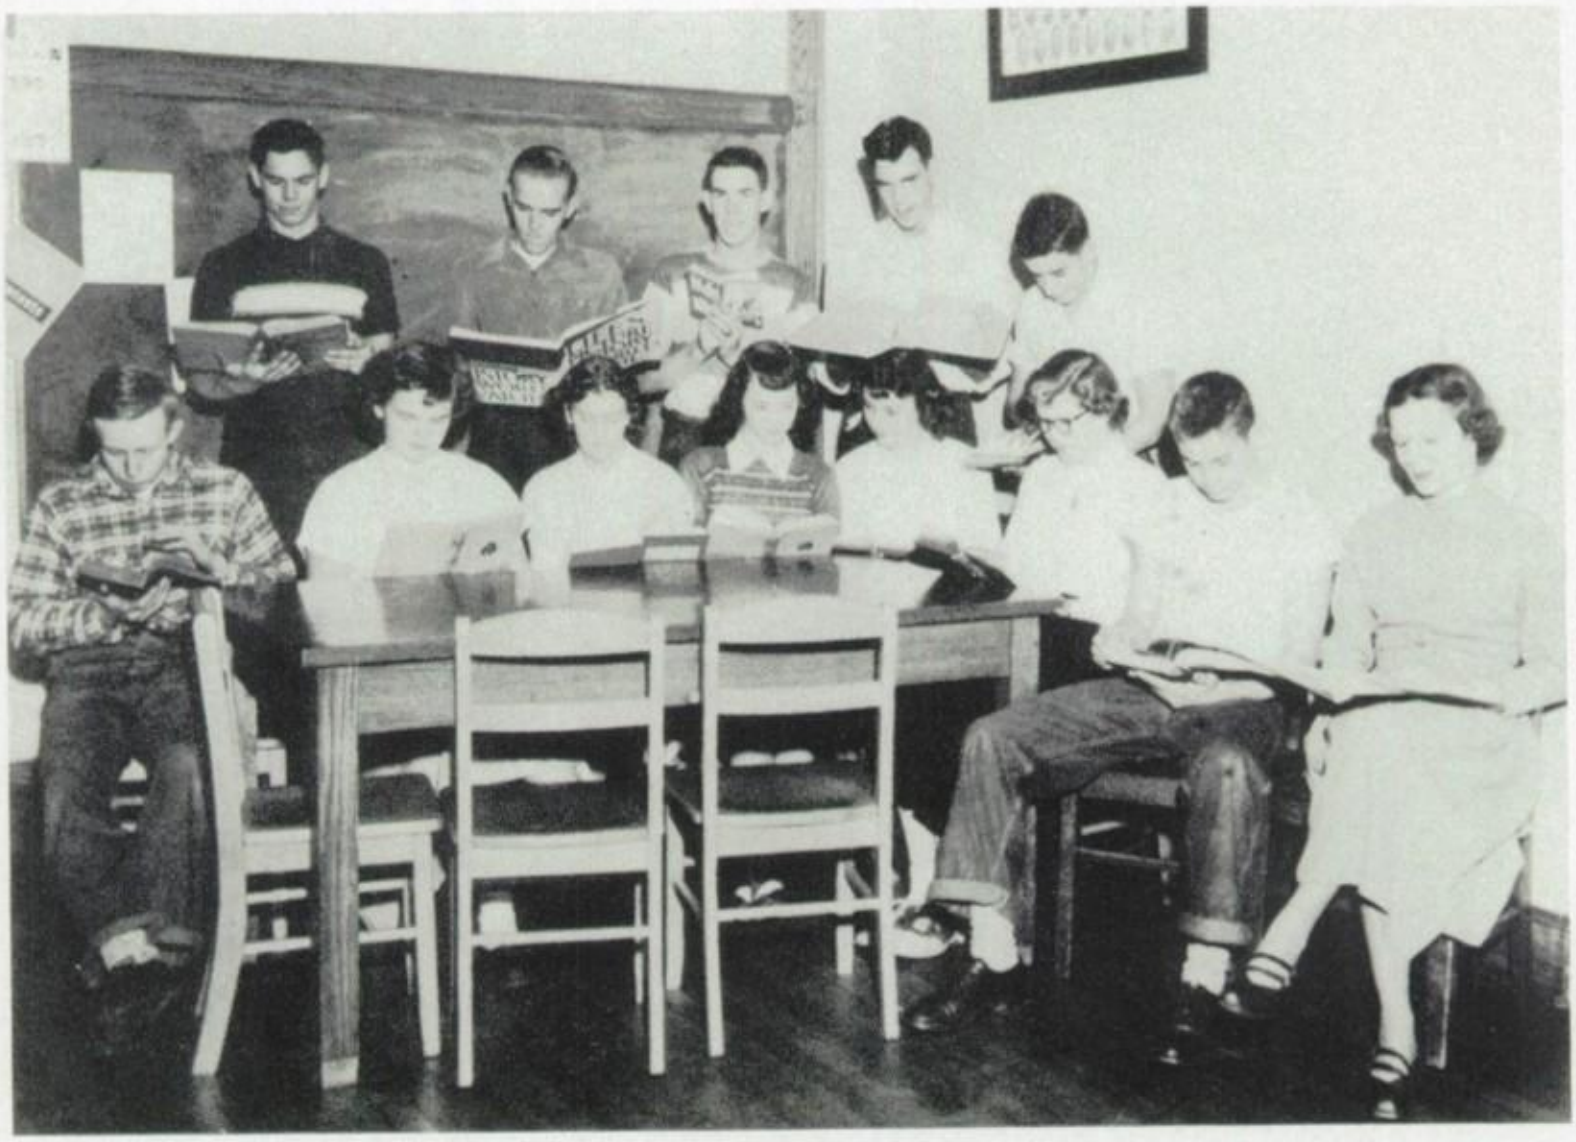
This year, four seniors, who achieved the honor of being accepted last year, and three juniors, who were chosen this year, form the active membership. To be eligible for membership, a student must rank scholastically in the upper five percent of his junior class or in the upper fifteen percent of his senior year. After a student has become eligible for membership, he is considered by the members of the Society, in accordance with a rating scale, for: Scholarship, Leadership, Service and Character.

When a student is thus elected into the National Honor Society, he takes the pledge to ever strive toward a higher standard for himself and for all students in these four cardinal principles.

Members of the National Honor Society have met regularly with their faculty advisor, Mr. R. S. Kettlewell, for discussions. The students selected pins and seals for diplomas with the emblem of the Society.

This organization is considered one of the most meaningful of all of our school's activities.

BOOK CLUB



Seated : Willard Hill, Roberta Roberts, Peggy Gribble, Ann Louise Bridgeman, Joanne Fulton, Julianne Gotshall, Dick Trimmer and Mrs. Manning
Standing: Donald Sudduth, Jim Richardson, Bill King, Lee Custer and Dick Rizor

Members of the Book Club pictured above meet every two weeks during their regular English class period. The Book Club is an informal class club with an aim of increasing the interest of the members in reading for pleasure. The programs prepared by the club members have included book reviews, book contests, charades, and special field trips to the New Philadelphia Library and Daily Times office.

This same group has edited the school column, Dennison Hi Lites which appears each Thursday in the Evening Chronicle.

CORRESPONDENCE CLUB

Seated : Anna Mary Rabbage, Evamae Rest , Patti Riggs, Julianne Gotshall, Mona Colvin, Roberta Roberts, Lois Beckley, Carol Herron, and Rena Stocker

Standing : Mrs. Manning, Jo Ann Bloom, Sally McCluskey, Sue Stocker Shirley Huston, Gloria Natoli, Melva Finch, Shirley Shurtz, Mary Ann Kenny, and Mona Richardson

The Correspondence Club, a newly organized group at D. H. S. this year, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Manning, has, as its purpose, to establish a friendly relationship with young people in other countries and to gain better understanding and appreciation of the customs and ways of people in other lands. The members of the club receive names and addresses from the International Correspondence Society in Oregon. The members have friends in Switzerland, Germany, Belguim, Puerto Rico, Canada, Holland, Sweden, Austria, and Mexico. Many letters require translation as many of these new friends write in their Native language.

SIGNAL

The Signal staff, selected in the early fall, from members of the Junior and Senior Classes, has made every effort to make the Signal a book of memories of which the students may be proud and one that is truly representative of school life at Dennison High.

In November and December, the advertising staff, headed by Shirley Shurtz and under the supervision of Principal Manning, solicited advertisements from the merchants of the Twin City area. Before the Christmas holidays, the editorial staff and art editor met with their faculty advisor, Mrs. Manning, to outline the work that lay ahead. As the editors progressed with the actual writing of the material, the typists began the long, laborious and painstaking work of preparing the copy for the publishers. The Movie Projector Club is an organization of fellows under the guidance of Mr. Kettlewell, who is in charge of the visual education program of our school. Their contribution to the school program is that of operating the movie projector for classroom movies during the school year. During the first half of the school year, this group showed noon movies for all cafeteria students who cared to attend. The head movie projector operator, Dick Soulsby, has been in charge of making the assignments and posting them on the bulletin board for the members of the club. Marion Rabbage was the main operator for the noon movie program.

Although this club does not have any definite program of social activities or officer organization, it serves a vital need in the school program and has contributed much to the recreational and educational needs of the students.

CHEERLEADERS

Although the cheerleaders are considered an invaluable addition to all athletic contests, their worth or contribution to student life cannot be measured by means of scores or points. However, in hearts, we know that they have shown us the way to be good sports and to support the team, even in defeat.

Marilyn "Myrnie" Bache, our Senior Cheerleader, has been in our cheerleading squad since her Sophomore days at D.H.S. She has built a solid foundation for a happy life by proving her loyalty, spirit, courage, and good sportsmanship at all athletic contests.. We won't forget "Myrnie"--or her enthusiasm.

Joyce McKnight and Shirley Huston, our Junior Cheerleaders, were introduced into our squad for the first time this year: they have also built a solid foundation for their work by being athletically inclined all through school. Already they show promise, and we're looking forward to their future ability.

Last, but not least, and never forgotten is the small one, Jeannine Bache. "Nene" is going to fill the shoes left by her sister very well in the next two years, and we hope those years are as successful for "Nene" as "Myrnie's" have been for her.

PRINCE OF PEACE CONTEST

Mary Schupp, Carol Herron and John Whitaker

For the first time, D. H. S., represented by Mrs. Marjorie Manning, assisted in the preparation of declamation speeches for the Prince of Peace Contest, sponsored by the Ohio Council of Churches. This Contest, designed to promote world peace, is open to students, regardless of creed or religion.

The five contestants, pictured above, each chose a declamation speech from a handbook of speeches published by the Ohio Council of Churches. These five presented their speeches from memory at the Dennison Methodist Church on Sunday evening, November 5.

Patty Maitland was judged the winner with Mary Lee Schupp at alternate (second place). Patty was eliminated in the county contest at Newcomerstown on Sunday evening, December 6.

Three other high school students also participated in a Prince of Peace Contest held for members of the Park Christian Church only under the guidance of Reverend Neil. They were: Shirley Brown (winner) Violet Soulsby (alternate), and Barbara Yonley.

MAJORETTES

A necessity for a marching band and an asset to any high school, is the majorette group. D. H. S.'s Marching Band has five majorettes of whom the student body may be justly proud , for our majorettes this year have demonstrated talent, precision, teamwork, poise and grace. Many hours of drill work are behind the half time program that we view in the polished form at the football games and much credit should be given our majorette unit for their loyalty, faithfulness and enthusiasm for their work.

Head Majorette, Margie Brownfield, has been with the marching band for her four years of high school. Her friendly attitude, sincere enthusiasm , capable leadership and earnest efforts to give the best performance possible will be missed by the other majorettes, the band as well as by the entire student body next year.

Junior Majorettes, Jeannine Wineman and Mary Wood, both have experience talent , and ability and have been valuable majorettes to the marching unit this year. Naomi Selzer , Sophomore Majorette, Arlene Stier, Freshman Majorette, have worked hard to earn the place they hold in the majorette unit and are truly capable, likeable, and deserving members of the unit. Little majorettes, Janice Wallace and Gloria McPeek, show excellent promise of becoming highly talented majorettes during their high school career.

BAND

The band, under the direction of Mr. Stuckey, has been one of the most active of our school activities during the entire school year. During the football season, the band participated in half-time ceremonies for all games except the Danville game which they did not attend. With the assistance of a speaker at the microphone, the band depicted special events and scenes by their formations. The band marched in special parades in Dennison, Uhrichsville, Cadiz, Newcomerstown, and Dover during the fall. At the school Christmas assembly, a special brass quartet composed of Ruth Wright, Millie Gold, Jerry Hill, and Richard Wineman played Christmas carols. On February 24, the band entered a mass band concert, consisting of the bands of three other schools. The annual school band concert was presented in the school auditorium, April 24. Highlighting their social activities were the Christmas Band Party in December and the Band Banquet by the Band Mother's Association in January.

FOOTBALL

The Railroaders opened the 1950 football season with a 33-13 victory over Midvale. Then a tough Shadyside aggression pinned a 27-13 defeat over the battling Railroaders. Dennison then made the long trip to Danville winning a hard fought game by a 13-7 score. This contest featured a 94 yard pass interception by a Danville man, who scored their only touchdown. The next game was against an outclassed Byesville team, which lost to Dennison by a 44-0 score. This night was "Moms' Night" with next Friday night being "Dads' Night." Dennison won this game after a see-saw battle which saw nice running by Jack Phillips of Barnesville and Dick Rizor of Dennison. Then came the traditional Uhrichsville - Dennison game in which the Railroaders were on the short end of a 14-0 score. During the game, the Railroader attack never was able to get started. Dennison then took another trip, this time to Cadiz, where we absorbed a 33-0 trouncing by the E. C. O. L. champs. The Homecoming game was played against Carrollton in rain and mud with Dennison losing a heartbreaker 13-12. The last game of the year was played at Newcomerstown. Dennison won easily by a 39-20 score, again featuring the running of Dick Rizor and Bill Barth, who scored all the points. Individual scoring honors went to Dick Rizor, senior half back who made 81 points.

BASKETBALL

Dennison opened the season at Dover and came out on the short end of the score, losing 70 to 39. After this first defeat the "Railroaders" went on to win five straight before dropping a 39-38 decision to Carrollton. Starting things off again Dennison dropped Scio for the second time, this time by a score of 65 to 47. The next game, the first of the two with our rivals from Uhrichsville, turned out to be a real thriller with the "Tigers" finally winning 37 to 38. Again Dennison was off on a five game winning streak,win ning over Midvale, Cadiz, Tuscarawas, Newcomerstown, and Barnesville, taking all five by substantial margins. At this point, Dennison came up against New Phila, and after battling all the way, finally went down, defeated by four points, 69 to 65. The "Railroaders" then won their two remaining games, one with Cadiz and the final game of the season with Uhrichsville. With a share of the E C O L title hanging on the outcome of these games, Dennison rolled over Cadiz 73 to 50, and edged Uhrichsville 49 to 48.

This last game ended a very favorable season for the Dennison "Railroaders" under the tutelage of Coach John Harmon. The team's record for the year was 13 wins against 4 losses. The"Railroaders", were co-champions in the E C O L for the second consecutive year; sharing the title last year with Newcomerstown and this year with Uhrichsville. The team's record in E C O L competition this year was 6 wins and 2 losses. With such a good showing in the regular season including the near upset of New Phila's"Quakers", Dennison's rating in the entire state was boosted to 17th place.

Our team this year was well balanced with a fair amount of height and its share of speed. High scoring honors went to Bill "Mutt" Barth with 202 points and Dick Polen with 201; following in the scoring were Allensworth, Co-captains Rizor and Hill. High for the reserves was Dave O'Hara with 171 points.

TRACK

Although the track team had not been organized as the Signal went to press, Coach John Harmon has a fairly good idea what he and his assistant, Jim Allen, will have this year. Coach Harmon states that the team this year will be small in strength and will lack experience. According to Harmon, the sprints and the weight events will be the weak spots.

The two year lettermen returning this year will be: E. C. O. L. champion miler, Dick Polen, who set a record time of 5 minutes flat; and also qualified for State competition in high jump; Dick Rizor, high and low hurdles, broad jump and mile relay; Don Sudduth, high-jump and mile run. The one year lettermen who will be returning this year will include Glenn Garbrandt, Gary Riggs, Bob Arnold, and Ronnie Patterson. Prospects for the coming track and field season this year are Jim McCord, Dale Zeimer, Dick Jackson, Basil Hill-year, Dick Patterson, Dave O'Hara, Jim Campsis, and Don Moody.

The schedule this year will include dual meets with Uhrichsville, Dover, New Phila, and Millersburgh; the E C O L meet and the District meet both held at Uhrichsville; and triangular meets with Newcomerstown and Cadiz; Sugar Creek and Strasburg.

The track team will miss the services of Bill "Mutt" Barth, who two years ago was the District half-mile champion, but last year had a good deal of trouble with an injured knee which he developed while running hurdles. When the call comes for the thin-clads this year, Bill will not be able to answer it as a participant for Bill will be too old. We hope Gary Riggs can keep up the good work.

KING

PROPHECY

Exclusive for Signal

Sent by The Dennison Post (circulation 12,999) as foreign sports correspondent to cover the International Sports scene, this reporter, Jim Richardson, landed in his private plane at Peace Hav en Island in the South Pacific in May, 1961 after a few hours rest.

Imagine my surprise when I encountered Lieutenant Donald Sud-duth of the U. S. Navy talking with Seamen Don McCue, Dick Trimmer Dick Rizor, Mutt Barth, Dick Soulsby, and Bill King, all of whom were enjoying a few days leave at this world famous resort. After a few hours of reminiscing about these good old days at D. H. S., we ambled over to the island's largest recreation center where we found Lieutenant Peggy Gribble of the Waves in charge. As we were leaving the center, we watched one fo the O'Donnell Airlines planes coming in. Out of the plane stepped Captain Frank Barker and Stewardess Joanne Fulton. Both were concerned over one of the passengers,and, stepping closer, I recognized that renowned world traveler and lec-turer, Don Armstrong, From the world's most complete and efficient-ly staffed first aid station, came nurses, Julianne Gotshall, and-, Roberta Roberts, who immediately rescued Mr. Armstrong and whisked him into the station.

After a speedy recovery, Don and I spent a pleasant hour renew-ing old acquaintances, and reviving memories of the past. Don had with him some movie scenes of our former classmates of D. H. S. As he explained, in his world travels, he had encountered all the mem-bers of that famous (infamous?) class of 1951 and had made this, movie of memories. With a great deal of interest and surprise, I, saw (courtesy of Armstrong's Movie Camera); "Oscar" O'Donnell, own-er of O'Donnell Airlines, with his private secretary, Norma Millh-orn; Postmaster General, Willie Hill, conferring with the Pennsyl-vania Railroad president's private secretary, Margie Brownfield, the Elite Beauty Salon owned by Mrs. Helen Richard Dunlap (still Punky to us) amd under the drier, Marilyn Bache, who owns half interest in the Cleveland Indians. Sitting by, waiting her turn, was the profes sional figure skating champion, Ann Louise Bridgeman: in a little white cottage around the corner scene, was Kathryn Moore Pittis with dust mop in hand and Junior on her arm; the next view was that of Lee Custer sitting behind a huge oak desk with a cigar in his mouth, dictating a letter to his stenographer, Nancy Treherne. Lee, it seems, owns a Pittsubrgh Plate Glass Factory in Midvale, Ohio.

Dazed, I returned to answer the phone call which necessitated m leaving Peace Haven within an hour to cover a football game in Iran. Bidding good-by to Armstrong, I left the island, thinking to myself, "What a class--that class of 1951 at D. H. S.!"

WILL

In the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred and fifty one, we, the Seniors of D. H. S. do bequeath the following to our beloved classmates whom we leave behind:

I, Bill King, being of questionable mind, but sound body, hereby, state that if I get out, I'm going to take everything with me.
I, Mutt Barth, will all the good times I've had in D. H. S. to my two cousins; to Big Head Fisher, my last two cents to spend for brains because he's got such a big head; and to Lois Beckley, a stick of noise gum to crack to keep up with the typewriters.
I, Margie Brownfield, will to Mr. Allen, another Senior History class like ours. To the park kids, my ability to get a ride to school with Mr. Lower on a cold winter morning.
I, Norma Millhorn, will to all the park kids a bus so they won't get cold in the winter.
I, Peggy Gribble, will to my cousin, Gary Craft, all my good times in World Problems; to Carol Herron, my seat in senior homeroom.

I, Donald E. Sudduth, being of sound mind and body, will to Eddie Wagstaff the same; to Dick Polen, I will at least one good pass receiver.
I, Helen Richard, will to Mary Wood my seat in senior homeroom. To Dick Polen my ink pen and hope that he doesn't break the point.
I, Willard Hill, will to Dick Polen all the fun I have had and the few girls I know; to "Jughead" Fisher and "Jab" Dudgeon, the balance of my estate, which consists of the lump sum of two cents.
I, Roberta Roberts, will to some poor unsuspecting soul, my place as senior editor of the Signal.
I, Kathryn Moore, will to any one who gets my position on the Den-Hi a new pair of shoes.
I, Julianne Gotshall, will to Arlene Stier, my chair in band in hopes that she won't be as flat as I was. To Eddie Wagstaff, my most prized possessions, the 100's I got in currents events tests.

I, Nancy Treherne, will to Sally McCluskey, all the good times I had in this school. To my brother, Frank, I give my ability to get to have my lessons, and to whoever wants it my seat in Mr. Lower's home room.
I, Don Armstrong, will to my brothers, Dick and Pete all the good times I had at D. H. S. and to Tom Downey my ability to get to school on time.
I, Frank Barker, will to Basil Hillyer, captain of the "51" football team, to Shirley Maxwell, my ability to stay up late and still get to school on time.
I, Dick Rizor, will to Nene Bache, my permanent seat in the library in Mr. Jirles' seventh period study hall. To Gary Riggs, my position on the football team and I hope he has as much fun playing it as I did.
I, Jim Richardson, will to my two sisters, Mona and Popper, my seat in Senior Home-room. To Bob Wright, I will all my books.
I, Richard Soulsby, will to my sister, Violet, the ability to get along with Mr. Morrison.
I, Joanne Fulton, will to my sister, Betty Jeanne, my position on the Den-Hi and Signal, Heaven help her! To Shirley Brown, Shirley Maxwell, Patty Patterson, and Mary Ann Kenny, the ability to survive the last year. To my brother I will my ability to get along with Mr. Manning.

18 Final, Final High School Tests - Today we, the seniors of Dennison High School, class of 1951, will take our final exams. Wish us success.

19 Corsage, Car, Cabbage (money), and Companion - Tonight is the night of the Junior-Senior Prom. Gee thanks, Juniors; it was swell.

20 Today is Sunday - All who weren't in bed will begin to prepare for evening. All the seniors will be there. Baccalaurate, you know.

24 It's Come - Yes, commencement time is here, Whether it's the end of the beginning, we're ready. Good-bye to Dennison High.

CONTRIBUTED

Many excellent contributions in creative writing have been made by the students at D. H. S. this year. We, the editors, have chosen several for inclusion in our book of memories.

Big Brother

by

Joyce McKnight

When my brother left for the Army
I stood at the station and cried;
The saddest moment of my life
Was when he said good-bye.
We fought when he was home,
But that was nothing new,
'Twas when he got on the train,
My heart turned sad and blue.
My eyes were sad,
My heart was blue,
So I took one last look and said
"May God bless you."

Beautiful Snow

by

Robert Bloom

Oh! the snow the beautiful snow
Filling the air and earth below;
Winter snow from the clouds above
As pure as angels and white as a dove.

Oh! the snow the beautiful snow
It falls in places both high and low.
Making the ground so pretty and white
It looks so pretty under the moon at night.

Oh! the snow the beautiful white snow
It makes you feel all aglow
There is nothing so pretty and white
As the snow on a wintery night.

Oh! the snow the beautiful snow
Filling the air and the earth below.
Winter snow from the clouds above;
As pure as angels and white as a dove.

Think of Me

by

Evamae Rest

Miles apart o'er land and sea
But do you ever think of me?
I see your face in day so bright
I see your smile in dreams at night.
Always together you would say
Even if one is far away
Although another day is through,
Always remember I'm thinking of you.

Our Life Ahead

by

Lois Beckley

Have you ever thought of the life ahead.
Of the life you'll lead
after your dead.
Oh, to be one of that great throng,
Assemble around Luke and John,
Oh what will happen when we are gone?
Yes, what will happen on
Judgment day,
When you realize you for
got to pray,
To help your neighbor as all men should,
To love them all and try to be good,
As we each are bidden to do.
In your soul, there'll
be a great dread
You'll be afraid to see
what's ahead,
But our God is good and kind,
He sees our sins and
reads our minds,
And forgives our troubled souls.
This God of ours is truly great,
His boundless love, we do not rate,
Yet, to all, He offers
peace of mind,
Something that we can never find,
Except in His wonderful love.

The Mayor got a raise, and passed out cigars.

The librarian got a raise, and passed out cigarettes.

The teacher got a raise, and passed out.

I sit alone in the twilight,
Forsaken by dog and by man;
And murmur over & over,
I'll never eat onions again.

Lives of seniors all remind us,
We can make our lives like theirs
And departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the high school stairs.
